

Letter from Mabel Hubbard Bell to Alexander Graham Bell, November 29, 1909, with transcript

Letter from Mrs. Alexander Graham Bell to Dr. Alexander Graham Bell. Twin Oaks, Washington, D. C. (Tuesday, November 29, 1909) My darling Alec:

Here is Sandie's contribution. (This was a streak)

I wish you would answer my telegram. I never ask questions by telegraph just for the fun of the thing.

I feel worried about you and want you down here. I know I feel all right when I am up in Beinn Bhreagh, but from here it seems a very lonely out of the way place and I want you here in the midst of things. Of the new A.T. and T.Co. move, of Cook's disappearance and all the other things I want to talk to you about. Please come home. I am lonely and don't want to go away and they are tearing Twin Oaks to pieces and it's breaking my heart. I said I wanted them to do it while I was here as I wanted to be on hand to see Mamma's things go, but its hard. Her room is just as she lei? it and I don't believe I can stand it's being touched. Now it seems just as if she were out and would come back in a minute.

Much love. I am just going to lunch with Aileen.

Lovingly, Mabel. Tuesday, Nov. 29, 1909.
